

Nathan Holman, First round 64 (-7)

How good is seven under out there?

I think it's pretty good. There's a lot of chances still, but you get in the rough and it can really grab you so seven under, I'm really happy with that.

What is it you've done well?

I just played really well to be honest. Every part of my game was quite good and I was saying a few weeks ago that my game has been trending in that right direction so it was nice to get a really good one in.

This certainly seems to be a tricky course and you've got the conditions to deal with as well.

Yeah, it's hot. It is very tricky but today the cloud cover is quite nice and kept temperatures down a little bit which is comfortable to play out there. It was good.

Your kind of course? Do you like this old style?

It suits my eye. I quite like the look of it and obviously that's shown through with the score I had today so I'm looking forward to playing the next three days.

Good to play with K.T. Kim as well, shooting a nice score?

It's always good when you can play well together and just keep ticking along and keep pulling each other along, it's good.

Your form is always up there on a nice level.

Yeah, it's good. I'm playing fairly consistently and consistently getting better which is another good thing so I'm looking forward to the next few weeks.
