Miguel Tabuena (Phi) – Second Round 68 (-3), Total 134 (-8)

Considering your condition, this must be quite good?

I'm really happy with my form so far considering I'm not 100%. Just told myself to shoot anything under par and get back to the hotel as fast as you can and try to get ready for tomorrow. I'm happy I managed to get a few under par.

Does it make it extra hard for you in the Malaysian heat and humidity?

It's very humid when you play here. I don't normally use an umbrella when I play but I had to as I was feeling dizzy. I'm happy with my position. Hopefully I'll keep it up.

With your condition, does it hamper your preparation?

I normally will hit a few putts right after my round but I've got to take care of my body. I've got to go back to the hotel and take some rest.

Does the phrase "Beware the injured golfer" help sometimes in this situation?

It works for the better sometimes as you don't think about the golf. Sometimes when you play golf, in the pre-consciousness, you tend to do great things. I'm happy with my performance so far, so I hope to keep it up.

You seem to be in form, winning in Philippines last year and fourth in Singapore?

I had a good start to the year, finished fourth in Singapore and I won on the local tour last week. I'm happy with my form and hopefully I keep it up.

Any difference in your approach with such a calibre field here?

In some ways yes, but I don't want against the other players. I just want to compete against the golf course.
