

Maybank Championship 2017 Round Two

Pablo Larrazábal

"It was good. I started with a birdie but then three-putted my second hole, the 11th, and then I kept patient, I got into a patient mood. Yesterday I hit the ball very well but the putts were not dropping.

"I knocked it to three foot on 17 for a birdie and then a lovely three wood on 18 to three foot for an eagle to go four under par for the front nine.

"Then it got slow again, I missed three or four four-footers on my back nine, but I'm very happy with five under.

"It's going to be a very important weekend for me. If I play good I'm going to get into the WGC in a few weeks' time – if not, I will have about eight weeks off to think about it! I like to play in this part of the world.

"I like Malaysia, a lot of good things have happened here, and a couple of strange things too <reference to the famous hornet attack in 2014, but I'm looking for a good weekend."
