

Tuesday Preview

Nicholas Fung (Mas)

Thoughts coming back?

I'm very excited coming back to Saujana. It is one of my favourite golf courses. I've played here so many times when I was young.

What do you think of the course?

This golf course is more about being aggressive off the tees. I don't hit it far but if I keep my ball in play I think I can do well. The greens are soft and it is good for me to attack so it suits my game.

How's the game after the Lunar New Year?

I rested for one week last year because of the Chinese New Year but I've been playing well. I made the cut in Singapore and Myanmar and I've had a lot of motivation from my friends, family and sponsors. I'm feeling very positive about my game and the week ahead.

Your target this week?

My target is to go as low as I can. I don't want to think about winning and putting pressure on myself even I'm playing at home. I want to go as low as I can.

Is a top-10 result good?

A top-10 result is achievable but I don't want to overthink things. I just hope my putt drops this week.

Anything you want to improve on after a good year last year?

I just want to improve on my distance. I hope to gain more distance. I'm not saying my putting is bad but it will be good if I can putt better.

What do you think about the Asian Tour and European Tour co-sanction events?

It is good to the Asian Tour players to explore and play outside of Asia. It gives us a chance to play in Europe. Just look at Wang (Jeunghun) when he won last year and recently. If I do get to play in Europe, my concern is the good. I will miss Malaysian food. Even when I travel sometimes, I bring Malaysian food with me and cook in the room.

This will be a good week for a first win?

Yes, hopefully this will be the week I win my first victory.